Passengers and Crew Reach Land

After Hope Had Been Abandoned. Atlantic City, N. J .- After spending wenty-four hours in terrible anxiety lest they be wrecked and swept into the sea, the passengers and crew, sixty in all, of the Clyde line steamer Cherokee, bound from San Domingo for New York, which went aground on the Brigantine shoals Friday, were rescued late Sunday afternoon and landed at the inlet here. Captain Archibald, two mates and the ship's carpenter elected to remain aboard the steamer. The rescue was accompanied by Captain Mark Casto and picked crew in the sloop Yacht Alberta, and their experience was almost as thrilling as that of the stranded passengers. More than a thousand persons greeted the storm-tossed party as the sloop sailed into the inlet with the report that all hands were

The delegates are engaged in proparing material for use in Va.hington.

Peculiar Antics of Italian Boy Are Thus Explained. A most wonderful medieval story is now occupying the attention of the south of Italy. In a small village there is a family of the name of Pansini, and if all be true that is written of it we may think ourselves in the Dark Ages again. There are two Morales, With a Broken Leg, boys in this family, and they disappear occasionally in a most mysterlous manner. In fact, a few minutes after they disappear they are found miles away. How they get there no one can tell. They say they are carried from place to place by the Holy Ghost. Spirits are also said to inhabit the house where they live: the eyes of all, and cakes and sweets are showered over the boys' beds when they are asleep. One of the boys falls in trances, when he speaks different languages (even Latin and Greek) in a strange voice. He also spouts passages from Dante, and provisited him, but cannot discover the machinery which is evidently at work somewhere. The last who visited him was a Jesuit father. At his approach the boy began to curse and swear and kicked him. The Jesuit says the boy is possessed by the devill-Vanity of Simple Joke.

A rare old book, called The Living Authors of England, published in 1849. commences with a study of Wordssaid to be the only loke the poet ever made. At a friend's house after din ner, it appears, the conversation turned upon wit and humor. Thomas Moore, who was present, told some anecdotes of Sheridan, whereupon Wordsworth observed that he did not consider himself a witty poet-"indeed," he said, "I do not think I was ever witty but once in my life."

Being pressed to tell the company what this special drollery was, the poet said, with some hesitation: "Well I will tell you. I was standing some time ago at the entrance of my cottage at Rydal Mount, when a man accosted me with the question, 'Pray, sir, have you seen my wife pass by?" whereupon I answered Why my good friend, I didn't know till this moment that you had a wife!"

The company stared and upon realizing that this was all there was to the poet's joke, burst into a roar of laughter, which Wordsworth smilingly accepted as a genuine compliment to the brilliancy of his wit.

UNCONSCIOUS POISONING.

How It Often Happens From Coffee. "I had no idea," writes a Duluth man, "that it was the coffee I had been drinking all my life that was responsible for the headaches which were growing upon me, for the dyspepsia that no medicines would relieve and for the acute nervousness which unfitted me not only for work but also for the most ordinary social functions.

"But at last the truth dawned upon me I forthwith bade the harmful beverage a prompt farewell, ordered in some Postum and began to use it. The the Southern Pacific laid a stretch of good effects of the new food drink were amparent within a very few days. My headaches grew less frequent, was explained by the tracklayers as and decreased in violence, my stomach grew strong and able to digest my food without diatress of any kind, my nervousness has gone and I am able to enjoy life with my neighbors and sleep soundly o' nights. My physical strength and nerve power have increased so much that I can do double the work I used to do, and feel no undue fatigue afterwards.

"This improvement set in just as soon as the old coffee poison had so worked out of my system as to allow the food elements in the Postum to get a hold to bulld me up again. 1 cheerfully testify that it was Postum and Postum alone that did all this, for when I began to drink it I 'threw physic to the dogs." IN POSSESSION OF THE DEVIL RUSSIA COUNTS COST OF THE RECENT WAR

Total Cost of Operations Against the Japanese is Estimated at One Billion and Fifty Million Dollars.

St. Petersburg.-The budget statement for 1906, which was made public on Friday, shows that it will be necessary to raise $240,500,000 by credit operations to balance the estimated receipts and expenditures. The latter plates and glasses are broken before include $202,500,000 for the liquidation of the expenses of the Russo-Japan war, the repatriation of troops in the far east and the reduction of the army to a peace footing. For the first time the total cost of the war, $1,950,-000,000, is revealed.

The credit operations to balance the budget include the recent authorization of $200,000,000 in treasury bonds, $75,000,000 of which have already been used to renew the Mendelssohn loan, and the credit of $150,-000,000 which former Finance Minister Kokovsoff is now negotiating in Paris. The primary object of the lat-ter, the proceeds of which will be retained in Paris, is understood to be the maintenance of the stability of the ruble.

Whole Foot Nothing But Proud Flesh -Had to Use Crutches-"Cuticura Remedies the Best on Earth."

"In the year 1899 the side of my right foot was cut off from the little toe down to the heel, and the physician who had charge of me was trying to sew up the side of my foot, but with no success. At last my whole foot and way up above my calf was nothing but proud flesh. I suffered un told agonles for four years, and tried different physicians and all kinds of ointments. I could walk only with crutches. In two weeks afterwards I saw a change in my limb. Then I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment often during the day, and kept it up for seven months, when my limb was healed up just the same as if I never had trouble. It is eight months now since I stopped using Cuticura Remsdies, the best on God's earth. I am working at the present day after five years of suffering. The cost of Cuticura Ointment and Soap was only $6, but the doctors' bills were more like $600. John M. Lloyd,718 S. Arch Ave. Alliance, Ohio. June 27, 1905."
